

I'm an innovative interior designer with numerous experiences in creative designs, renovation, photoshop, rendering techniques, space planning, and many more. I have various backgrounds in different types of cultural diversity design including Baroque, Neon Street, Classic, Gentleman-type, Sports, etc. Moreover, I consider myself as a highly responsible and committed individual. I'm dedicated to every task that's given, able to adapt and be flexible in different types of working environments. I firmly believe that my diverse background has given me the opportunity to develop myself, my career, and the requirement that the company is looking for.
